Heintzelman Post Helps Salvation Army

A fitting climax to the meeting of the Heintzelman Post of the American Legion last night was a collection taken up for the Salvation Army. Only a small number of the veterans were present, but it seemed as though every one had anything but blank notes on his person. A nice sum was realized, the exact amount of which could not be learned.

Business of a routine nature was transacted and several amendments to the constitution proposed at a former meeting were not acted on on account of the small attendance, due mostly to the amount of sickness among the members and their families.

All members are urged to meet Sunday afternoon at the Court house and march to the First Methodist church to attend the memorial exercises.

It is urged that the newly appointed vestrymen all be present at this meeting as matters of importance will be transacted.

Scolded the Sheriff—Sheriff Glover was scolded last night very late regarding the arrest of a woman's husband. The sheriff said he was very sorry but he couldn't go on any wild goose chase without a warrant and the laws in West Virginia particularly.

"I'll get him myself!" she exclaimed. "I can fight all right." "Maybe you can," replied the sheriff sleepily. "I've seen that pulled off too."

CLUBWOMEN HEAR OF EUROPE'S PLIGHT

Mrs. DeBolt Warmly Greeted Upon Recovery From Serious Illness.

The feature of the regular meeting of the Woman's club held yesterday afternoon at the Masonic Temple was the Current Events address given by Mrs. George DeBolt. This was Mrs. DeBolt's first appearance before the club for several weeks, she having been away on account of a severe illness, and she was warmly greeted by members of the club as she entered the room.

Mrs. DeBolt talked concerning the political and economic conditions of European countries since the signing of the armistice, dwelling on the unsettled conditions in Ireland, Turkey, Egypt, on the political chaos in England, on the probability of Poland making peace with Russia, on the latter country's unsettled condition, which is largely controlled by the bolshevik element, and illustrated her remarks with a large map of Europe which had been placed in a conspicuous place. She also talked briefly of the probability of the suffrage amendment to the constitution being ratified very shortly, and concluded her address with an interesting and instructive review of the play "Abraham Lincoln" dramatized from the novel, "A Man for the Ages," by Irving Bacheller and which was presented in New York this winter. Mrs. DeBolt closed her remarks with a fitting tribute to the life, character and ideals of Abraham Lincoln.

Musical features of the afternoon were two solos, "The Bird of the Wilderness," by Horsemann, and "In My Garden," by Liddle, sung artistically by Mrs. T. E. Johnson, accompanied by Miss Mary Louise Nichols.

On account of the funeral of Mrs. Rosalie Fleming the club meeting did not open until four o'clock and concluded shortly after five. In her closing remarks Mrs. J. Walter Barnes, club president, spoke feelingly of Mrs. Fleming, who had been a member of the club for a number of years.

At the next meeting of the club, to be held on March 5, the annual nomination of officers will take place, and to this end Mrs. Barnes named the following committee: Mrs. F. E. Nichols, Mrs. A. L. Lehman and Mrs. Mrs. E. F. Hartley. The election will be held on March 19. In the absence of Miss Callie Frey, secretary, who is ill, Mrs. R. M. Hite presided in that capacity.

A list of names which were presented for membership and which were not read, but which will be read at the next meeting, consisted of Mrs. Clyde H. Kimmel, Mrs. William Edgell, Mrs. J. R. Blocher, Mrs. Victor Gwynn, Mrs. R. M. Gardner, Mrs. Don Hewitt Blanks, Miss Elsie Welsh, Mrs. A. C. Ross, Mrs. C. A. Schimmel, Mrs. Laura Gwynn. Names carried over from the last meeting and read yesterday were Mrs. George M. Kinsey, Mrs. J. R. Lake, Miss Rose Swisher, Mrs. Bailey Thompson, Miss Madge Holt, Miss Blanche Price.

The next meeting of the Musical department will be held Tuesday evening, February 24, at the home of Mrs. M. J. Fletcher on Benoni avenue. A musical program in charge of Mrs. O. A. Wood will be presented. The Literature and Art department will meet Monday evening, March 1, at the home of Mrs. O. F. Lough; with the chairman, Miss Ethel Ice, presiding.

Glenn Ghrest Dies of His Injuries

Glenn Ghrest, aged 31, the young man who was seriously injured on last Monday while at work at Jamison mine No. 8, when a thread bar on a mining machine which he was helping to operate swung out of position and struck him in the head, died this morning at 9:30 o'clock at Fairmont hospital where he was taken following the accident. The man's skull was crushed and he never regained consciousness and practically no hope was held out for his recovery from the time he entered the hospital.

Mr. Ghrest had been in this county visiting relatives having come here from Sparrow Point, Md., where he had been employed by the Bethlehem steel company and had gone to work the day previous to the accident which caused his death for the Jamison company.

His mother and two sisters of Greensburg, Pa., came here on account of his illness and were with him when he died. The body will be taken to day to Greensburg for burial.

Nearly one-third of the former service men who were insured by the government cannot be reached by mail at their old home addresses, as shown by the letters returned as undeliverable.

FLU KITCHEN WILL BE DISCONTINUED

Great Improvement Reported This Morning in Health Conditions.

That the kitchen maintained for the past several weeks by the Red Cross in the Methodist Protestant Temple will be discontinued at least for a time, is probably the best piece of news, considering the reasons, that this cold, drab, dreary day has brought forth. This morning such reports were made by the two visiting nurses, Misses Gladys Winfield and Martha Ball of the lessening of the flu epidemic that it was decided that this action will be taken tonight, unless in the meantime it became necessary to rescind the present intention.

How much nutritious soups, custards and other dainties have been prepared and given out by the blessed women in charge in the past few weeks, how many people have been benefited, persons who had absolutely no one to look after them, will never be known. No accounts were kept. With characteristic Red Cross generosity they simply gave, and gave, and gave.

Let it not be understood, however, that any certain class of people were the only givers. Many who couldn't give much, gave their services to the utmost. At the kitchen this morning, there were more shrinking violets than there ever before gathered together in the same space. No one wanted to have her name mentioned. Said one woman, please don't mention my name. I missed several days. Mrs. X was here every day. And so it went. It was ascertained, though, that the kitchen was under the immediate supervision of Mrs. Annie Haymond and Miss Florence Arnett.

Leslie Winemiller Dies of Pneumonia

Leslie Winemiller, aged 31, died this morning shortly before ten o'clock at his home at 1102 Virginia avenue after an illness of about a week of pneumonia. He is survived by his wife and one son, Junior. Mr. Winemiller was an employee of the Fairmont Mining Machinery company and was formerly employed as a conductor by the Monongahela Valley Traction company. His parents reside in the vicinity of Lumberport. No funeral arrangements have been made at this time.

Funeral Today of Mrs. W. L. Doolittle

Funeral services over the body of Mrs. William L. Doolittle, whose death took place on Thursday evening at her home on Maryland avenue, were held this afternoon from the residence of her sister, Mrs. C. S. Riggs, on Fairmont avenue, where the body was taken last evening on account of the serious illness of her husband and children at their home. Following the funeral services the body was taken to Woodland cemetery, where it was laid to rest by Undertaker R. C. Jones.

CAROLINE

O. G. Lowther, former mine superintendent at Carolina mine, is his family to Washington, Pa. yesterday. Mr. Lowther resigned February 1st to accept a position with the Producers Coal Co., of Pittsburgh, as assistant general manager. Washington will be headquarters for Mr. Lowther in his new position.

The Carolina school has been very much interrupted for the past three weeks on account of the absence of the teachers who have been suffering with influenza. Mr. Wade substituted for Mr. Starcher during his absence. Substitutes were obtained from the senior class at the Normal school for Miss Wince and Miss Lucy Rex, of Downs, have been substituting for Miss Dickie. No time has been missed and all of the teachers are back on the job except Miss Dickie who will report for duty Monday.

Quite a few of the pupils have been out of school suffering with influenza but the attendance has not decreased to any great extent. There are a number of cases of influenza in the town but most of the victims are among the adults.

Often men doing clerical work, general office work, etc., which is more or less confining, felt the effects of a lack of physical exercise. Such is the case of "Bill" Hite, script clerk at Carolina mine office. Bill recently came to realize that he could not do justice to three squares a day and regardless of the H. C. L. provided himself with a punching bag and he can now be seen during his leisure moments hammering away at the iron.

resistable bit of atmosphere contained in a bit of leather. It is needless to say that Bill's appetite is improving and he is enjoying his work. This bespeaks the keen felt need of an amusement and recreation hall for Carolina.

WOMAN'S CLUB

Rest Room when it becomes installed in the corner room downstairs now occupied by the Red Cross would have to give way to demands for more space for county court work. It was thought probable that in time an elevator would be sunk from the file in the County clerk's room down to this room which is just beneath and it would be used for keeping reports and files. The present record room is inadequate.

County clerk Arthur Martin when asked about the decisions of the county court as to the room this morning said he knew nothing except that he heard the county court clerk Mrs. Barnes of the Civic department and tell her that "if arrangements can be made with the Red Cross" the women of Marion county can have the room. He said the Red Cross knew it was only granted the room temporarily.

Several occupants of offices in the courthouse say they have always wanted the use of the room now in question but could not persuade anyone to let them have it. The room in argument is the very place in the building occupying a corner space of sunny light capaciousness. It has doors leading out-of-doors so that persons need not come inside the courthouse at all to enter if they do not care to. The fact that a barber shop recently had the room makes it sure that water piping is handy to connect for a lavatory.

J.D.A. MORROW TO

Car Pool to Go.

George T. Bell, executive vice president of the Northern West Virginia Coal Operators' Association, returned last evening from a business trip to Pittsburgh. While in that city Mr. Bell conferred with J. J. Monynihan, manager of the eastern car pool.

After March 1 the eastern car pool will be abolished. The railroads if turned over to private owners on that date will have a commission on car service under the American Railroad Association's jurisdiction. It will function so that equipment will be distributed rather on the basis of ownership of the roads than by the rating of the mines.

Evans Appointed.

W. D. Evans, of this city, has been appointed division superintendent of transportation of the West Virginia district of the Consolidation Coal company, assuming the duties last Monday at room 500, Watson building. His work will be chiefly that of computing the car rating for the corporation's mines.

Mr. Evans, who is a very popular employee of the Consolidation Coal company, entered its employ in 1901, first being stationed in Clarksburg, but in 1903 became attached to the office of the general manager in this city under the late Lee L. Malone. When G. T. Watson was made general manager Mr. Evans was stationed in the general operating department.

Inspecting Party.

John H. Jones, president of the Bertha Coal company, and Rachel Coal company, J. E. Stewart, M. D. Gibson, all of Pittsburgh; D. T. Thompson, Indiana, Pa.; and J. G. Garretts, Lancaster, Pa., were in the Fairmont region yesterday making an inspection trip of Rachel mine at Downs, this county. Today the party is inspecting Eureka mine in Monongalia county, W. Va.

There were 317 cars of coal loaded east and 77 cars of coal loaded west on the B. & O. railroad yesterday.

Railroad Fuel.

Railroad fuel loading totaled 58 cars on Friday. Of this the B. & O. railroad secured 38 cars. Lehigh Valley, New York Central, P. & R., Washington and Southern and Maine Central were greatly shaded due to the low production due to the car shortage.

FARMINGTON

Tearing Down Building.

Lee Toothman has moved his furniture and hardware store into rooms in the Collins hotel and is now tearing down his building and moving it out of town, and in its place will erect a large brick building. This building was one of the oldest in town and was known as the Swisher and Hagerty store building.

Qualified for High School.

In the recent diploma tests, Wilbur Hatzel was the only student from the Farmington school that passed and is qualified to enter high school next year.

Musicians Good.

Visocchi's Florentine Musicians, who appeared at the high school auditorium Thursday night, the fourth number of the high school Lyceum course, was that of a fine musical by the large crowd present. Mr. Visocchi can sure play a piano accordion. He played from grand opera to "Blowing Bubbles." He did not get to give a full program, as when he reached here he received a telegram that his son was dead. The nine fifteen through train was stopped so Mr. Vosschi could reach his home as soon as possible. Miss Capetico showed a lot of skill with the violin and Miss Wright sang several fine solos. The next and last number on the course will be given March 10, when Ralph Parlette, one of America's greatest lecturers, will lecture.

Literary Good.

The high school literary society held a good meeting Friday afternoon. The debate, Resolved that navigation did more for America than railroads, was hotly contested by Paul Morgan and Delbert Kerns, affirmative, and Percy Conaway and Harry Quenon, negative. The negative won. Several visitors were present.

Sanitary Bakery.

The Sanitary bakery has purchased a number of large bread boxes. These words are printed on the side, "Sanitary Bakery, Golden Crust Bread, Farmington, W. Va."

EAST SIDE NEWS

Large Crowd at Diamond Street Church.

The largest audience that has gathered at the Diamond street church since the beginning of the evangelistic services was in attendance at last night's service. Dr. E. D. Fellers the evangelist sang most impressively. "I Want to See Jesus Don't You?" A large representation from the Owens Plant attended the service.

Dr. Fellers based his discourse upon the following scripture, "The Soul That Sineth Shall Surely Die." He emphasized the fact that nothing good or pure in life was left after the death of the soul. That man is the architect of his own eternal future and is given knowledge and a way to save his soul if he will do so. God does not want a single soul to be lost. Jesus is our Mediator and "No man cometh to the Father but by Me." The fact that man must pay the penalty for disobedience to God's laws and that "what a man soweth that shall he also reap" was made plain to all. At the close of the discourse six persons asked for the prayers of God's people. There were two conversions.

There 387 school children attended the children's service Friday afternoon. The Evangelist explained the love of the Master for children and how necessary it is for all to love Him and be willing to obey Him. Seventy-five boys and girls gathered around the altar and expressed their desire to love and serve Him. The scene was a most impressive one. Their names were taken and will be handed to other East Side pastors so that these children may be helped and guided by their pastors and Sunday school teachers.

Sunday evening the railroad employees will attend the services in a body. Seats will be reserved for them.

"A SPLENDID TONIC"

Says Hixson Lady Who, On Doctor's Advice, Took Cardui And Is Now Well.

Hixson, Tenn.—"About 10 years ago I was..." says Mrs. J. B. Gadd, of this place. "I suffered with a pain in my left side, could not sleep at night with this pain, always in the left side..."

My doctor told me to use Cardui. I took one bottle, which helped me and after my baby came, I was stronger and better, but the pain was still there.

At first let it go, but began to get weak and in a run-down condition, so I decided to try some more Cardui, which I did.

This last Cardui which I took made me much better, in fact, cured me. It has been a number of years, still I have no return of this trouble.

I feel it was Cardui that cured me, and I recommend it as a splendid female tonic."

Don't allow yourself to become weak and run-down from womanly troubles. Take Cardui. It should surely help you, as it has so many thousands of other women in the past 40 years. Headache, backache, sideache, nervousness, sleeplessness, tired-out feeling, are all signs of womanly trouble. Other women are cured by taking Cardui. Why not you? All druggists.
